

Founded in 1937, the San Antonio Housing Authority (SAHA) is one of only 39 public housing authorities throughout the nation with the Moving-to-Work designation from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. This designation provides agencies with administrative and programmatic flexibilities to test innovative, locally-designed housing and self-sufficiency strategies.

Strategic Goals

1. Empower and equip families to improve their quality of life and achieve economic stability
2. Invest in our greatest resource – our employees – and establish a track record for integrity, accountability, collaboration and strong customer service
3. Preserve and improve existing affordable housing resources and opportunities
4. Strategically expand the supply of affordable housing
5. Transform core operations to be a high performing and financially strong organization
6. Develop a local and national reputation for being an effective leader, partner and advocate for affordable housing and its residents

SAHA provides housing services to the San Antonio community through Public Housing, Assisted Housing and Mixed-Income Housing programs.

Vision

Create dynamic communities where people thrive.

Mission

The San Antonio Housing Authority provides quality affordable housing that is well integrated into the fabric of neighborhoods and serves as a foundation to improve lives and advance resident independence.

About SAHA

Founded in 1937, the San Antonio Housing Authority (SAHA) is one of only 39 public housing authorities throughout the nation with the Moving-to-Work designation from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. This designation provides agencies with administrative and programmatic flexibilities to test innovative, locally-designed housing and self-sufficiency strategies. SAHA empowers and equips families to improve their quality of life and achieve economic stability through the Agency's commitment of funding for resources such as education, employment and job training, with the direct involvement of local partners.
